Adelard E. Cote, Commissioner
Department of Labor
State House
Concord, New Hampshire

Dear Mr. Cote:

In your letter of January 28, 1958, you inquire as to whether the minimum wage law applies to, (1) employees of a school operated by a private corporation, such as the Golden Rule Farm, and (2) to orphanages operated by a private corporation.

Neither of the types of institutions which you refer to are exempted from the provisions of the minimum wage law, and, accordingly, it is the opinion of this office that they are subject to it.

Sincerely yours,

John J. Zimmerman
Assistant Attorney General
